Subject: Namra Jewels Private Limited Launches Exclusive Gen Z Jewellery Collection

Dear Sir/Madam,

Mini Diamonds (India) Limited ("MDIL") is pleased to announce to its shareholders that Namra Jewels Private Limited ("Namra Jewels"), its wholly owned subsidiary, has launched a new lab-grown diamond-studded jewellery collection designed specifically for Gen Z and young consumers. Priced below ₹50,000, the collection combines contemporary styling, quality craftsmanship and accessible luxury.

Young consumers increasingly view jewellery as an expression of their personality and individual style rather than something reserved only for traditional occasions. Through this collection, Namra Jewels aims to address these evolving preferences with modern and versatile designs suitable for self-purchase, gifting and different occasions. The launch also expands the brand's product portfolio and strengthens its connection with a younger generation of jewellery buyers.

This is for your information and record.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,
For Mini Diamonds (India) Limited
